and Table of Results

This past Friday night is the opening night for the high school's annual school play. This year, the students chose to perform the play, Oliver Twist. Parents of the students performing were given free tickets to attend. Tickets for the opening night sold out and the event was considered a grand success. Determine the full name of the students playing six of the main characters, the first names of their parents, and the name of the character each student played.

1. Fred didn't play Fagin. Stewart's son didn't have a last name of Forest. Owen's wife wasn't Natalie.
2. Marge Brady's son wasn't Will. Sam's last name was Wood but his wife was not Rose. Toby's mother was not Sally. The boy whose last name was Collins wasn't Nathan.
3. Fred's father was Mike. Susan wasn't Amanda's mother. Mrs. Corney was played by Burton's daughter.
4. The six students are represented by the following: Will, the girl whose last name was Wood, the student whose mother's name was Brenda, the student whose father's name was Stewart, the student whose last name was Love, and the boy playing Bill Sikes.
5. The boy whose last name was Forest had Susan for a mother. Oliver Twist was played by Toby. Martha wasn't the girl who played Nancy.
6. The Artful Dodger was played by the boy whose last name was Grant. Adam and Sally's son wasn't Nathan. Bill Sikes wasn't played by Mike's son.
