At lunchtime today, five employees from the Gadget Factory went out to do their banking. Though Millersville itself wasn't a large town, there were many options available in the surrounding area so it wasn't unusual that all five employees used different banks or credit unions. While all made deposits (and it wasn't even payday!), the odd part was that each made a deposit to a different type of account. Determine the full name of each employee, the name of the bank each went to (one was City Trust), the street each bank was on, and the type of account where each made their deposit (one was a CD).

1. The employee whose last name was Lewis didn't have a savings account nor did she go to the Citizen Credit Union.
2. Peter Bradley didn't go to a credit union. Harriet, whose last name wasn't Lawson, went to the bank on West Street but she didn't have a checking account.
3. Elliot, whose last name wasn't Ranger, went to South Street to do his deposit but not at the Workforce Credit Union. The employee who went to the First National bank had a savings account.
4. Fleet Bank was on Third Street but it wasn't Glenn's bank. Cindy, whose last name wasn't Sweet, had an IRA but it wasn't in the bank on Main Street.
5. The two credit unions were the one on Rockland Street and the one that held an employee's money market account.
6. The employee whose last name was Ranger didn't use a credit union to deposit money to his checking account. Harriet didn't have a money market account.
