School is out for the summer but Chris and his friends were depressed to discover they still had homework to do. The school started a new reading program this year. So armed with a list of recommended books, the boys were required to pick two, read them over the summer, and turn in a report for each book at the start of the fall school year. Determine the full name of Chris and his friends, the order in which they finished their summer homework, and the title of the two books each one read.

1. Greg, whose last name isn't Collins, didn't read Tom Sawyer or Kidnapped.
2. The boy who read Hamlet also read Captain Blood. The boy whose last name is White finished third.
3. Chris finished after Mr. Collins, but before the boy who read Treasure Island. Martin finished after Mr. Sanders.
4. The boys finished their homework, from first to last, as follows: Captain Courageous, Mr. Parker, Nick, Red Badge of Courage, Huckleberry Finn.
5. Chris didn't read Tale of Two Cities. Ryan read Tom Sawyer but not Kidnapped.
6. The boy who read Treasure Island also read Red Badge of Courage. Mr. Brand read Romeo and Juliet.
